1. What do people need to start talking to each other about?

I'd like to see people who are attracted to trans women talk about it more openly and not hide it like it's something to be ashamed of.

2. You've won a number of awards, including MV's own Trans Performer of the Year. What do you hope to achieve next?

I'm interested in producing my own content this year and continuing to push the envelope for what trans women can do in porn. I'm tired of shooting the same vanilla, formulaic stuff for the larger companies. I just want to make trans porn kinkier, more fun, and more varied.

3. What advances in trans rights do you expect to see in your lifetime?

I don't know that I expect to see any. If anything, I feel like we're at risk of having our rights taken away, given the way things are going. My hope, though, is that things will improve dramatically, and that society will just accept us for who we are, respect our identities, and give us the same rights under the law that everyone else takes for granted. I don't think it's too much to ask that people just be kind to one another and treat others with the respect that they themselves wish to be given.

Sit on my face.

I want to make trans porn kinkier, more fun & more varied.

4. Tell us something that's true that almost nobody agrees with you on.

Dark Souls 2 is a good game.

5. What's your idea of the perfect romantic date?

If I'm being honest, I don't have one. I'm not all that interested in romance or dating.

6. What is the best thing someone can do to you in bed?

I like different things depending on whether I'm with a man or a woman. With men, I'm generally pretty happy just getting fucked in the ass. As for ladies, well, just sit on my face and let me sniff every wonderful, stinky part of you.

7. What's one piece of advice you'd give your 16-year-old self?

Transition now! Don't worry about pleasing other people so much. Your parents, friends, whoever. Put yourself first and do what makes you happy! They'll either accept you for who you are, or they won't. And if they don't, you don't need them in your life. Also, stop being such a nerd.

8. Do you have a go-to masturbation fantasy?

It usually involves me being enslaved by a sexy, dominant woman - dehumanized and turned into her pet piggy. Lots of bondage, hoods, nose hooks and general torment. Just treated like an animal. There's a lot more to it than that, but it's too much to go into and it can get pretty weird.

Oink Oink.

1. Alex Jones', noted conspiracy theorist and vocal transphobe, was recently revealed to be a fan of your work. What was your reaction when you found this out? How did you deal with the subsequent press coverage? Did he take you up on your offer of free content?

I was not shocked really. A lot of men who have negative things to say about the transgender community typically are the ones who admire and fantasize about being with us. I'm glad the world knows he watches Trans porn. We know what gets him off now: TRANSEXUALS! He never did respond to my free offer content or a guest spot on his show! A lot of press got in contact with me over this, and my social media grew, and I was trending on Google. I didn't have a chance to respond to all the reporters, though I did do a story for the NY POST and NEWS.com on my view of this situation and stood up for my community. I just wish he wasn't so nasty about trans people or anyone really. There really is no need for it.

2. What makes you feel sexy? What do you consider a major turn off?

Lately, I've started to feel sexy all the time! Even more than before, like I am blossoming even further into the woman I am on the inside… It's coming to the outside. I've lost a lot of weight by starting at the gym and eating healthy. So, I feel even sexier when I am glammed up in some lingerie or in a cute outfit out shopping. I'm really turned off by bad breath, ugly feet, smelly hygiene, and smelly genitals. You will know when I'm turned off. I just can't! LOL!

3. In your opinion what's the single most important issue the public should be aware of when it comes to trans' rights?

The trans community will not be silenced! I guarantee you that!

4. Who is your hero and why?

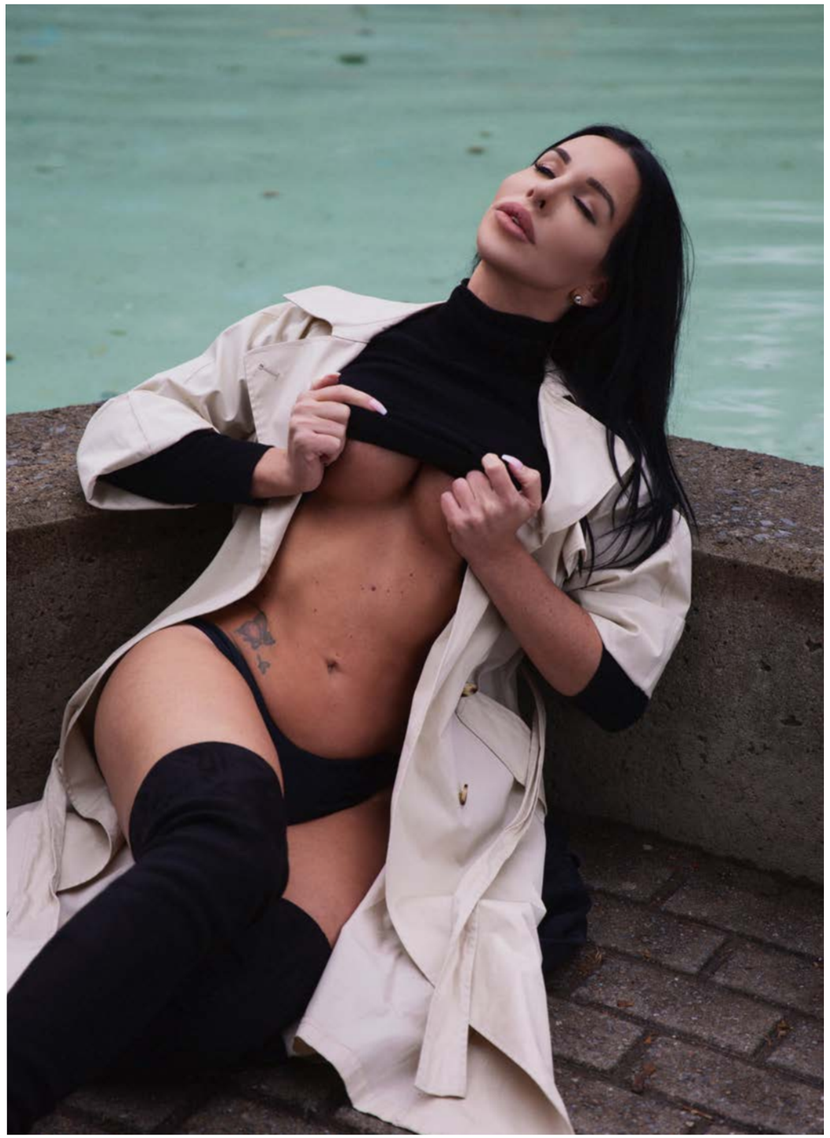
My hero is my mother! I'm a mummy's girl! Always have been.

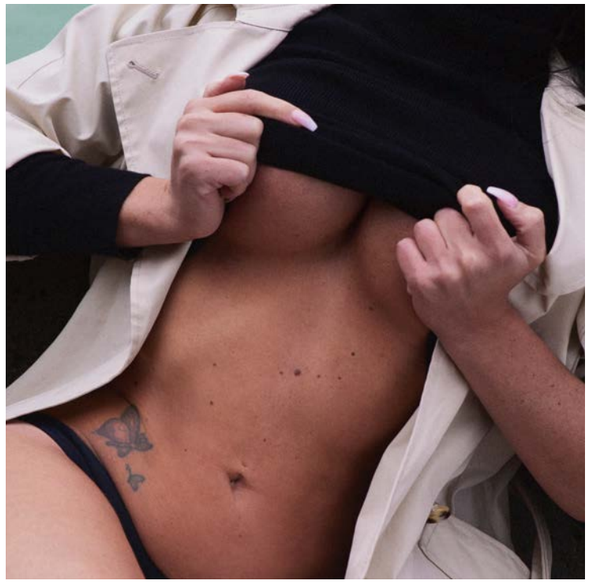
5. What's the first erotic fantasy or dream you remember having?

My first sexual fantasy when I was younger was about being forced into a gang bang with a group of sailors who were all having their way with me!

6. If you could make an MV vid with anyone (living or dead, fictional or real, ANYONE) who would it be and why?

I would love my MV scene to be with the group of sailors I fantasized about in my dreams!





7. What questions do you wish interviewers would ask you more?

"What's it like being transgender?", "how were you treated in high school?" and "do you have any advice for trans kids in school who are being bullied?"

8. What do you consider your secret superpower or hidden talent?

My superpower is just me as a person. An independent, super sweet, and very strong woman. It's never easy transitioning. It really makes you go on a journey and find out who you are deep within your soul. I love it, and I love all of your support!

The one move in bed that drives me wild is: Having my hair pulled from behind with a hand around my throat!

No one knows that I can: Stop my ears from ringing at will.

The last gift I gave someone was: A care package containing a book, a plush baby bat, and a CD all packed in a box with five pounds of candy and chocolates.

I could spend all day: On a professional porn set, or in a music studio working and creating things.

I don't understand why other people: Aren't always over at my house seeing as I make the best tacos in north Texas.

I can't wait until: My move to Vegas where I'll be able utilize my skills as a performer/producer to maximum effect.

Mona Vela

I wish I could spend more time: With my mom!

My favorite article of clothing is: Small dresses!

What should rule the world? Ethics.

If I were a mixed drink, I'd be: A mojito - sweet and funny!

What always makes you smile? Bunnies!

The last thing I do before I go to sleep is: Say good night to my deceased mother.

River Enza

The last song I had stuck in my head: “After the Storm” by Kali Uchis & Tyler the Creator.

Romance means: Learning to fulfill the desires of your Master, or partner, and dedicating your life to be their bimbo fuck doll while they guide you through a mad world!

You haven’t really made it until: You aren't made, you make yourself.

I always appreciate it when: Fans say that my content got them more into their submission or made them feel good about being a slutty bimbo.

The food I always order when I go out to eat is: Spicy BBQ!

The first thing I do when I get out of bed is: Feed the kittens and cuddle my Master Goddess Kyaa!

What always makes you feel sexy? Wearing a nice, tight pair of dark wash skinny jeans with messy hair.

The last thing I Googled was: How many muscles do cats have? I didn’t really get a clear answer.

The best way to approach me is: By being courteous. If you’re a stranger to me, saying “hi, how are you?” before you tell me I’m sexy is a good place to start.

I can’t say no to: Sour candy. I don’t think I’ve ever turned down sour cherry blasters. I don’t even think I’ve ever left a bag unfinished.

My favorite person to hang out with is: My super cool and super-hot wife, Ruby Rapture. I love making her laugh.

I like to daydream about: The stars, exploring forests, and what it would be like if real life was like D&D.

1. What is one thing you would like to try in your: 1. Life? 2. In front of the camera? 3. In your personal sex life?

1. Travel the world. I've probably travelled more than the average American already, but there is so much beauty in the world, I want to see it all!

2. A 50+ participant bukkake. It's my ultimate goal in porn.

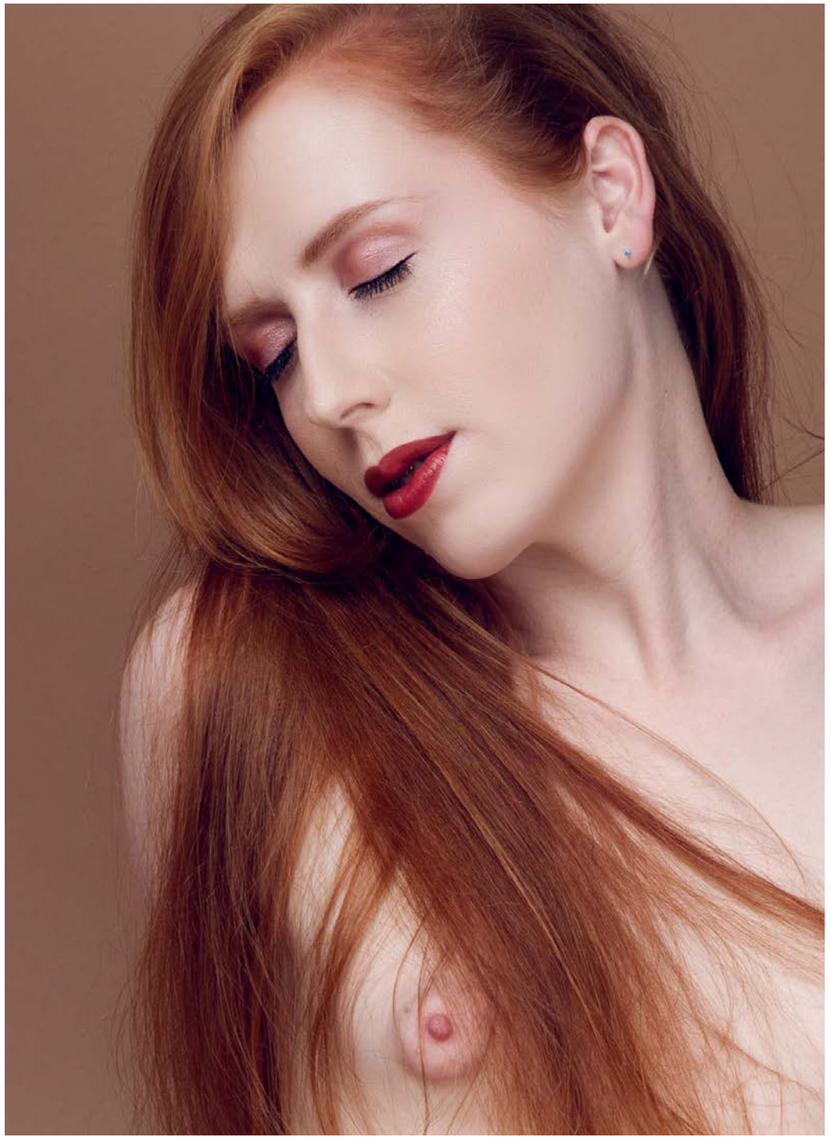
3. Being fisted. I'd obviously want to do this on camera as well, but big anal insertions are more passion than profession for me. I'll get there, and you'll find out almost as soon as I do!

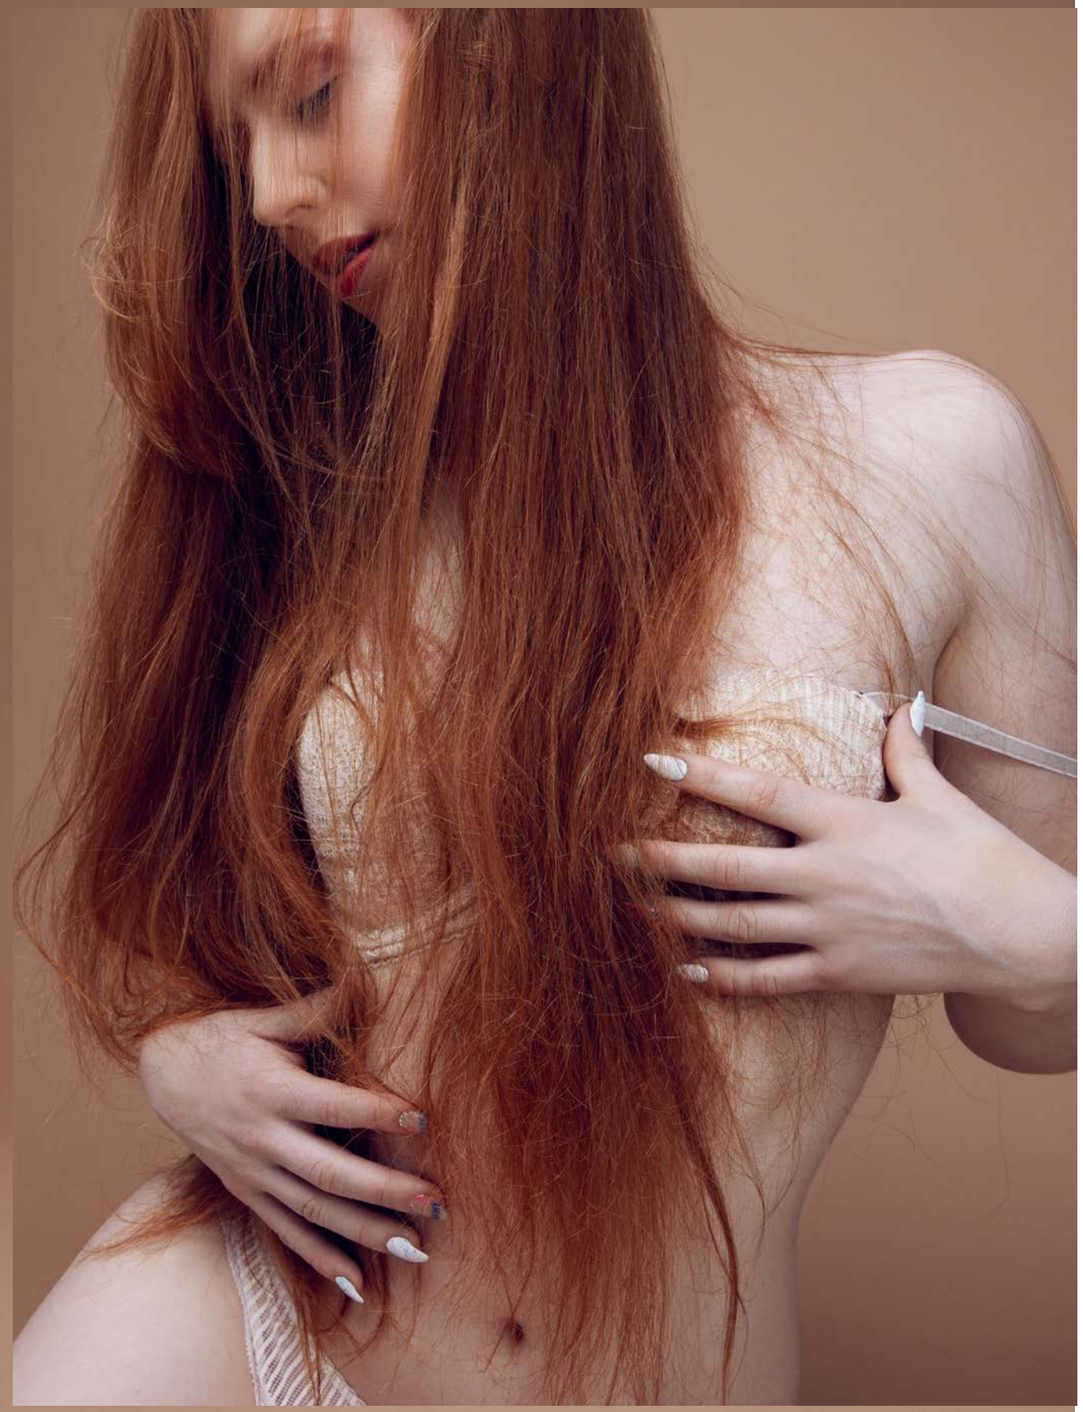
2. What does your ideal one-night stand look like?

I think it's pretty clear I'm a girl who loves variety, so there are many possible scenarios I can imagine. Obviously, a night full of lust and kinky fun—skip the dinner and a movie and get right to the fun.

3. What's something you think people should actively start doing to make the world a better place?

Stop making issues out of non-issues, and stop being distracted by sensationalist media. In the United States specifically–advocate for improving democracy by fixing voting laws, abolishing gerrymandering, and implementing ranked choice or range voting systems.





4. What do you predict in the near future will be happening in regard to trans' rights?

I'm trying to stay optimistic despite the recent news that the Trump administration is considering defining trans people out of existence. It would be a major setback, for sure, but I believe overall the world is headed toward increasing acceptance of trans identities.

5. What do you consider to be the greatest misconceptions people have about gingers?

I think a lot of people assume I'm of Irish descent because of my red hair. Truth is I likely get my fiery mane from my German great-grandfather, although I may have a few Irish ancestors if you go back far enough in my family tree.

6. Imagine you had an unlimited budget and unlimited resources to make a vid for MV, what would this dream project look like?

I would commission Elon Musk to build me a spaceship, so I could make space porn, preferably with him co-starring.

7. You are stranded on a desert island and can only take one sex toy with you, what is it and why?

Something big, like an XL Flint by Bad Dragon. That way I have a goal to work toward while I'm stranded there. Oh gosh, I hope I can bring lots of lube and cleaning supplies too!

8. What does it take to seduce you?

The most important attributes for me, in a male or female or otherwise, is health, cleanliness, and individuality. Like I said earlier, I'm a girl who likes variety, so I don't really have a "type." If I think you'll give me something unique, whether you're highly experienced or a virgin, that's sexy to me.

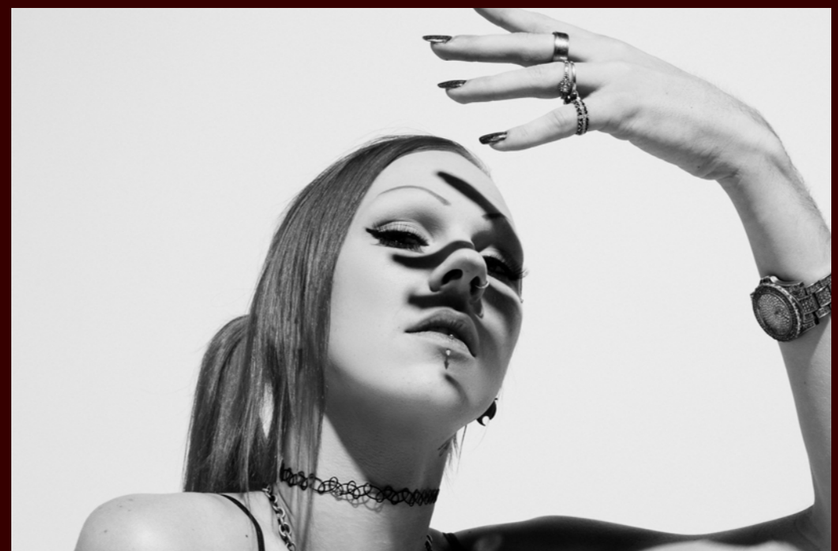
Never lose your flame



1. What's one thing you want your fans to know about you?

I'd like my fans to know that I sincerely appreciate the love and support they give to me, whether it's tipping on cam, buying my content, or talking on Twitter. I am grateful to be able to travel the world with my girlfriend Robin Coffins and film our naughty adventures and share it with you! I look forward to shooting content for years to come and doing it EVERYWHERE.

2. What should someone say if they wanted to dirty talk to you?

It really depends on the person as I'm sure it does with anybody, I guess. For example, if I were talking to a man, the ONE thing he could say to really turn me on is, "How do you want your bills?" as he pulls his wallet out of his pocket and hands me some cash or sends me a tip online. No better way to make a girl's day! When it comes to women on the other hand It's a completely different story. I am so in love with women in general, but I am particularly into aggressive ladies. I'm really submissive to women and I'm typically shy around those I like and melt like ice cream the second they flirt with me or touch me so it doesn't take much imagination to turn me on. Pushing me up against a wall and whispering something along the lines of, "I want you," is a real panty dropper.

3. In your opinion and according to your personal tastes, what makes for a hot vid?

It's hard to really pinpoint what makes a hot vid because I'm into such a variety. The main thing to me is that it is aesthetically pleasing with good angles and lighting. Nothing messes up a good vid like terrible angles. Closeup shots of the action are a must for me, I love seeing close up intimate shots of making out or penetration. I think the best scenes are the ones you can imagine yourself in.

Never love you more

Never love you more

4. What advice would you give to a trans woman interested in entering the adult industry?

If I could give any advice to a trans woman entering the adult industry, it would be to do some research beforehand. Consider the pros and cons and don't expect to get rich easy by shooting adult videos. I personally love shooting adult content but it's not for everyone, and it requires effort and determination and carries a lot of stigma.

5. Our audience may not be aware that you're a musician too, what are your musical goals?

I feel like most people aren't aware of this! I was a vocalist for a progressive deathcore band based in Toronto called Abolysh. We released 3 demo tracks which can be found on Bandcamp. Unfortunately, everyone moved on to do their own thing, and I'm currently not involved in any projects although I still enjoy playing guitar at home, singing in the car or playing drums when I get the chance! Music is one of my greatest passions in life, and I really hope to be able to get back to working on a project in the near future. If you're looking for a sexy trans frontwoman for your metal band give me a shout!

6. What MV Stars, porn performers, or directors, do you consider influential on your own work?

Vee Soho has been a massive influence on my work ever since I met him and I am grateful to have him as a friend and co-worker! He has taught me so many things and been such a positive influence in my life. There are many others who I consider influential, and I couldn't possibly go into detail about them all, but I also consider Rianna James, Courtni Demilune, Eliza Bathory, and Cattie Candescent to be influential to my work!

7. When it comes to sex toys: Which toy can't you live without? Which toy do you think is boring or over-rated?

When it comes to sex toys, my absolute favorite is my new Bad Dragon Kona dildo. I have never been so turned on by an inanimate object in my life! It looks like an alien tentacle and has a cum tube with slimy, messy cum lubricant. I have a fetish for both aliens and tentacles, so it's the perfect toy! I don't really know of any sex toys that I consider boring or overrated. I think anything can be fun if you use it the right way.

8. How does making adult content with your real-life partner affect your personal sex life?

I think making adult content with my real-life girlfriend makes our personal sex life more interesting and exciting! I initially had fears that it might affect our relationship negatively, but I have found that creating adult content together and separately has been a benefit to our relationship. In previous relationships, I was often uncomfortable communicating my desires with my partners because they were either closed off to new experiences or had issues with jealousy. Robin and I are both comfortable being open with each other about new sexual experiences we want to have or new content we want to shoot and we both keep open minds and try to help each other experience life to the fullest in the bedroom and in everyday life.
